

English Curriculum Overview

The writing outcomes are linked to the Core Text in each half term and will be the final written piece in the writing phase following our school writing approach (read, gather, write). There will be additional incidental writing opportunities during the 'gather phase'. These will incorporate a range of text types and genres. For example, narrative writing, poetry, arguments and discussions, biographies and autobiographies, diaries and journals, instructions and recipes, information texts, newspapers, recounts, persuasive writing, non-chronological reports, traditional tales, myths and legends, letters and playscripts.
